

Seasonal Songs

In winter the days grow shorter and the nights grow longer. The glow of holiday lights coming from the windows warms the winter night.

December Nights, December Lights

CD 21:15

Words and Music by Emily Crocker

Verse Em B Em - Am

1. De - cem - ber days are dark and cold and the
 2. De - cem - ber nights are crisp and clear and the
 3. De - cem - ber times are hap - py times and they

Em B Em B

snow is grow - ing deep. The trees are bare in the stars are i - cy cold. From far and near all the bring a mes - sage true. Good will to all and__

Em Am B Em

frost - y air and the world is fast a - sleep. There are sounds you hear are a prom - ise that's fore - told. There are peace on earth and a hap - py New Year, too. And__

Em B Em Am Em

can - dles in the win - dow, there are lights up - on the mer - ry voi - ces sing - ing, there is mus - ic in the when the snow has gone a - way and the sun shines warm and

B Em B Em Am

tree, all shin - ing in the dark - ness, air. All the tow - er bells are ring - ing, there is bright, we'll dream of mer - ry days gone by and a

B Em Am Refrain

tell their tale to me. } De - cem - ber nights, laugh - ter ev - 'ry - where. } cold De - cem - ber night. }

Em B

De - cem - ber lights, tell us of days so ve - ry

Em B E Am

long a - go. De - cem - ber - nights,

Em B

De - cem - ber lights, tell us the se - crets we must know.

B Em

Create a piece of artwork depicting the winter scene described in "December Nights, December Lights."

